15:12:30 From Richard Powers : I am the Vice President of Advocacy at Phoenix College in the Phoenix College United Student Government.

15:12:56 From Annette Lorraine Wright : My team, Student Life creates the criteria for Campus Orgs. Registered Orgs are able to receive fee allocation if they meet the criteria

15:12:59 From Jennifer Yawson : Campus Life Office, Student Senate and then Dean of Student. They can reserve space, advertise, and get funding

15:13:00 From Lisa Willcockson : Criteria is established through my office of Engagement. No specific benefits. Something I am working on for the coming year.

15:13:15 From Angie Royal : Office of Student Engagement establishes criteria. They receive funding and can use space.

15:13:17 From Megan Ruble : Approval/recognition goes through the Campus Activities Office and includes posting, financial account, mail delivery, option for office or storage space. Student Senate funds many organizations.

15:13:18 From Sandy Rutter : Student Life, Clubs have access to Student Gov't funding

15:13:23 From Austin Schacht-Purrington : Student life and SGA both approve new clubs, posters on campus and funding are the benefits at QCC

15:13:45 From Tabitha Sherrell : Our Student Engagement and Support office creates the criteria. Benefits range from advertisement, reserve space, and funding if they meet certain criteria through SGA

15:13:47 From Shauna Connelly : It's the Student senate along with the office of student life here at QCC.

15:14:52 From Ashlee Givins : *QCC folks, I'd like to move to SGA funding RSOs (recognized student organizations)

15:16:34 From Ashlee Givins to Dave Kelly, America's Student Leadership Trainer(Direct Message) : I'd love to hear more about leadership bingo!

15:16:50 From Imelda Hartley : We are working on establishing online study groups

15:17:52 From Angie Royal : Coordinating town hall meetings each semester with students and senior leadership

15:18:40 From Abbie Twyford Wilson : Online programming ideas that have worked for us:

- Book Club (1-2 books each semester, we send a hard copy/Audible/Kindle copy to the students and discuss over 5-6 weeks)
- Craft nights (painting, I'm hosting a "Sew-Cially Distanced Women's History Night" and send feminist themed cross stitch kits out, Pride Month bracelet making)
- Homegrown bingo and trivia nights

- Partnered with a local to a physical campus small business to host a virtual cooking class each month

15:19:02 From Tabitha Sherrell : Our SGA also oversees all student parking ticket appeals.

15:21:01 From Richard Powers : I am also a student representative in the Academics Interest Council at Phoenix College.

15:23:12 From Ashlee Givins : QCC has SGA/Student Trustee representatives on all faculty/staff committees.

15:23:17 From Ashlee Givins : Governance committees*

15:24:58 From Ashlee Givins : *QCC - we need to create our bylaws.

15:33:26 From Richard Powers : Phoenix College United Student Government: we use Robert's Rules of Order for running the meetings. We are also working on reconstructing our constitution and bylaws.

15:34:02 From Amanda Cerda : We are trying to build a kitchen for student use

15:42:20 From Dave Kelly, America's Student Leadership Trainer to Kate Rebban(Direct Message) : Kate, if you are there, please join your breakout room. Thank you!

15:47:19 From Lisa Willcockson : Loved the break out -met and talked with some great people!

15:47:31 From Austin Schacht-Purrington : Loved it! Great new ideas

15:47:38 From Adriane Thomas : It was informative

15:47:44 From Ashlee Givins : Yes! How to connect multiple campus through SGA.

15:48:27 From Lisa Willcockson : We are all have some of the same issues! We need to do a better job educating the students on what the benefit is to the student in terms of their potential for employment.

15:50:01 From Annette Lorraine Wright : For me, it was really encouraging to know that I'm not in my boat alone -- with things going well or things that I'm fighting against!

15:52:09 From Richard Powers : PC United: We have hybrid style meetings, meaning we allow students who can't make it in person to attend the meetings virtually.
