

Module 5 Serving Leadership

Dave Kelly | America's Student Leadership Trainersm

Who is some you can consider to be a serving leader? Why?

The key areas of Serving Leadership are:

- 1) _____ of the Individual
- 2) Sacrifice and _____
- 3) _____
- 4) Responsible _____.

I. Dignity of the Individual

- A. Puts _____ above _____.
- B. Awareness of the _____, _____, and _____ of others.

II. Sacrifice and Integrity

- A. Willingness to take _____.
Serving leaders are willing to put themselves on the _____.
_____ are not roadblocks, but _____
to be overcome.
- B. _____ of other people and communities
- C. Exhibits _____ that lifts other up, without _____

- D. Can be _____ to lead with _____.
Even in the midst of chaos.

III. Recognition

Clearly defined goals. You know where you are going and how to get there:

- S _____
- M _____
- A _____
- R _____
- T _____

IV. Responsible Stewardship

- A. Accepts _____.
- B. Expresses _____ generosity.
- C. Has _____ and a vision.
- D.
- E. Strong, _____ commitment.
Choose to _____. Perform _____ of service _____. Involve _____ in your service
_____. My service commitment is: _____

